

Love and Loyalty

Disputes 1-3: Doubts, Corrupt Worship, Idolatry

Dispute 1 (Mal 1:2-5)

God declares His enduring love for Israel; they doubt and ask "How have you loved us?" God reminds them He chose Jacob over Esau, exposing their mistrust.

Dispute 2 (Mal 1:6-2:9)

God accuses Israel's priests and people of despising Him by offering blemished sacrifices; they object, "How have we despised you?" God highlights their corrupt worship.

Dispute 3 (Mal 2:10-16)

God charges Israelite men with idolatry and betrayal of their wives; Israel denies wrongdoing. God condemns marriage to foreign idols and rampant divorce as covenant unfaithfulness.

Disputes 4-6: Accusations, Neglect, Grumbling

Dispute 4 (Mal 2:17-3:5)

The people accuse God of neglect, asking "Where is the God of Justice?" God responds that a Messenger will come to prepare His return and purify the people by fire.

Dispute 5 (Mal 3:6-12)

God calls the people to come back to Him; they ask "How?" He rebukes their neglect of the tithe to the temple and promises to pour out blessings if they faithfully give.

Dispute 6 (Mal 3:13-18)

The people grumble that it's worthless to serve God because the wicked prosper. God highlights the faithful remnant, decrees a "book of remembrance" for them, and vows to judge the arrogant.

Disputes 1-3: Doubts, Corrupt Worship, Idolatry

Dispute 1 (Mal 1:2-5)

God declares His enduring love for Israel; they doubt and ask "How have you loved us?" God reminds them He chose Jacob over Esau, exposing their mistrust.

Dispute 2 (Mal 1:6-2:9)

God accuses Israel's priests and people of despising Him by offering blemished sacrifices; they object, "How have we despised you?" God highlights their corrupt worship.

Dispute 3 (Mal 2:10-16)

God charges Israelite men with idolatry and betrayal of their wives; Israel denies wrongdoing. God condemns marriage to foreign idols and rampant divorce as covenant unfaithfulness.

Disputes 4-6: Accusations, Neglect, Grumbling

Dispute 4 (Mal 2:17-3:5)

The people accuse God of neglect, asking "Where is the God of Justice?" God responds that a Messenger will come to prepare His return and purify the people by fire.

Dispute 5 (Mal 3:6-12)

God calls the people to come back to Him; they ask "How?" He rebukes their neglect of the tithe to the temple and promises to pour out blessings if they faithfully give.

Dispute 6 (Mal 3:13-18)

The people grumble that it's worthless to serve God because the wicked prosper. God highlights the faithful remnant, decrees a "book of remembrance" for them, and vows to judge the arrogant.

Disputes 1-3: Doubts, Corrupt Worship, Idolatry

Dispute 1 (Mal 1:2-5)

God declares His enduring love for Israel; they doubt and ask "How have you loved us?" God reminds them He chose Jacob over Esau, exposing their mistrust.

Dispute 2 (Mal 1:6-2:9)

God accuses Israel's priests and people of despising Him by offering blemished sacrifices; they object, "How have we despised you?" God highlights their corrupt worship.

Dispute 3 (Mal 2:10-16)

God charges Israelite men with idolatry and betrayal of their wives; Israel denies wrongdoing. God condemns marriage to foreign idols and rampant divorce as covenant unfaithfulness.

Disputes 4-6: Accusations, Neglect, Grumbling

Dispute 4 (Mal 2:17-3:5)

The people accuse God of neglect, asking "Where is the God of Justice?" God responds that a Messenger will come to prepare His return and purify the people by fire.

Dispute 5 (Mal 3:6-12)

God calls the people to come back to Him; they ask "How?" He rebukes their neglect of the tithe to the temple and promises to pour out blessings if they faithfully give.

Dispute 6 (Mal 3:13-18)

The people grumble that it's worthless to serve God because the wicked prosper. God highlights the faithful remnant, decrees a "book of remembrance" for them, and vows to judge the arrogant.

Disputes 1-3: Doubts, Corrupt Worship, Idolatry

Dispute 1 (Mal 1:2-5)

God declares His enduring love for Israel; they doubt and ask "How have you loved us?" God reminds them He chose Jacob over Esau, exposing their mistrust.

Dispute 2 (Mal 1:6-2:9)

God accuses Israel's priests and people of despising Him by offering blemished sacrifices; they object, "How have we despised you?" God highlights their corrupt worship.

Dispute 3 (Mal 2:10-16)

God charges Israelite men with idolatry and betrayal of their wives; Israel denies wrongdoing. God condemns marriage to foreign idols and rampant divorce as covenant unfaithfulness.

Disputes 4-6: Accusations, Neglect, Grumbling

Dispute 4 (Mal 2:17-3:5)

The people accuse God of neglect, asking "Where is the God of Justice?" God responds that a Messenger will come to prepare His return and purify the people by fire.

Dispute 5 (Mal 3:6-12)

God calls the people to come back to Him; they ask "How?" He rebukes their neglect of the tithe to the temple and promises to pour out blessings if they faithfully give.

Dispute 6 (Mal 3:13-18)

The people grumble that it's worthless to serve God because the wicked prosper. God highlights the faithful remnant, decrees a "book of remembrance" for them, and vows to judge the arrogant.

Disputes 1-3: Doubts, Corrupt Worship, Idolatry

Dispute 1 (Mal 1:2-5)

God declares His enduring love for Israel; they doubt and ask "How have you loved us?" God reminds them He chose Jacob over Esau, exposing their mistrust.

Dispute 2 (Mal 1:6-2:9)

God accuses Israel's priests and people of despising Him by offering blemished sacrifices; they object, "How have we despised you?" God highlights their corrupt worship.

Dispute 3 (Mal 2:10-16)

God charges Israelite men with idolatry and betrayal of their wives; Israel denies wrongdoing. God condemns marriage to foreign idols and rampant divorce as covenant unfaithfulness.

Disputes 4-6: Accusations, Neglect, Grumbling

Dispute 4 (Mal 2:17-3:5)

The people accuse God of neglect, asking "Where is the God of Justice?" God responds that a Messenger will come to prepare His return and purify the people by fire.

Dispute 5 (Mal 3:6-12)

God calls the people to come back to Him; they ask "How?" He rebukes their neglect of the tithe to the temple and promises to pour out blessings if they faithfully give.

Dispute 6 (Mal 3:13-18)

The people grumble that it's worthless to serve God because the wicked prosper. God highlights the faithful remnant, decrees a "book of remembrance" for them, and vows to judge the arrogant.

Dispute 3 (Mal 2:10-16)

God charges Israelite men with idolatry and betrayal of their wives; Israel denies wrongdoing. God condemns marriage to foreign idols and rampant divorce as covenant unfaithfulness.

Dispute 5 (Mal 3:6-12)

God calls the people to come back to Him; they ask "How?" He rebukes their neglect of the tithe to the temple and promises to pour out blessings if they faithfully give.

What is the presenting issue?

Dispute 3 (Mal 2:10-16)

God charges Israelite men with idolatry and betrayal of their wives; Israel denies wrongdoing. God condemns marriage to foreign idols and rampant divorce as covenant unfaithfulness.

Dispute 5 (Mal 3:6-12)

God calls the people to come back to Him; they ask "How?" He rebukes their neglect of the tithe to the temple and promises to pour out blessings if they faithfully give.

What is the presenting issue?

What is the heart attitude it reveals?

Malachi 2:10-16

Page 961

Dispute 3 (Mal 2:10-16)

God charges Israelite men with idolatry and betrayal of their wives; Israel denies wrongdoing. God condemns marriage to foreign idols and rampant divorce as covenant unfaithfulness.

What is the presenting issue?

What is the heart attitude it reveals?

CHRIST CHURCH
HUNTINGDON

Dispute 3 (Mal 2:10-16)

God charges Israelite men with idolatry and betrayal of their wives; Israel denies wrongdoing. God condemns marriage to foreign idols and rampant divorce as covenant unfaithfulness.

What is the presenting issue?

Marrying women who worship foreign gods

What is the heart attitude it reveals?

CHRIST CHURCH
HUNTINGDON

Dispute 3 (Mal 2:10-16)

God charges Israelite men with idolatry and betrayal of their wives; Israel denies wrongdoing. God condemns marriage to foreign idols and rampant divorce as covenant unfaithfulness.

What is the presenting issue?

Marrying women who worship foreign gods

What is the heart attitude it reveals?

Idolatry and trust

CHRIST CHURCH
HUNTINGDON

Malachi 3:6-12

Page 961

Dispute 5 (Mal 3:6-12)

God calls the people to come back to Him; they ask "How?" He rebukes their neglect of the tithe to the temple and promises to pour out blessings if they faithfully give.

What is the presenting issue?

What is the heart attitude it reveals?

Dispute 5 (Mal 3:6-12)

God calls the people to come back to Him; they ask "How?" He rebukes their neglect of the tithe to the temple and promises to pour out blessings if they faithfully give.

What is the presenting issue?

Withholds tithes and offerings

What is the heart attitude it reveals?

CHRIST CHURCH
HUNTINGDON

Dispute 5 (Mal 3:6-12)

God calls the people to come back to Him; they ask "How?" He rebukes their neglect of the tithe to the temple and promises to pour out blessings if they faithfully give.

What is the presenting issue?

Withholds tithes and offerings

What is the heart attitude it reveals?

A willingness to hold back from God what He is due

CHRIST CHURCH
HUNTINGDON

Application

Our money

Application

Our money

Our time

Application

Our money

Our time

Our energy

Application

Our money

Our time

Our energy

Our skills and talents

Application

Our money

Our time

Our energy

Our skills and talents

Our effort

Application

Our money

Our time

Our energy

Our skills and talents

Our effort

Our relationships

